

From: Joe Vislocky
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/11/02 4:46pm
Subject: Microsoft's rejected settlement

I believe the judge was acting in a well considered manner. It seems to me that to punish a company whose practices have been deemed anti-competitive by giving them the means by which to further their monopolistic strategies was ill conceived in the first place. I know in my mind and many of my colleague's, it appeared that certain parties in the government had switched sides and were in fact in collusion with Microsoft.

Joseph S. Vislocky
IT Director
Wilmac Corporation
jvislocky@mcwil.com